

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

62.27

1950

Snyder's

Iris

Introductions

W. S. Snyder

3822 4th Ave.

Sioux City, Iowa

LIBRARY

RECEIVED

★ APR 27 1950 ★

U. S. Department of Agriculture

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture Library

Washington, D. C.

American Iris Society
Registrations

◆ Attention ◆

↓

NEW MEMBERS TO AMERICAN IRIS SOCIETY

The membership dues of $3.50 may be credited on your iris order, when chosen from this list or other named varieties I grow.

SELECTIONS NAMED ALPINE SUNSET

A choice bright variegata.

The standard deep "Tansy Yellow," and of enduring substance.

The semi-flar round Falls are reminders of setting sun glow. Low branching, 36-inch stalk. Fine growing habits.

$1.00

ALZA HOLA

A Spanish salute calling attention.

The colors of this iris may be visualized at a time when sun, unveiled sky and light cloud in relative view.

That ivory cloud with the blue of the sky filtering through and with the sun's delicate tracing.

$.75

BEAUTIFUL GALATEA

A self known as "Bridal Rose" Blushes.

The style together with the light pink shading give an iris of distinction. Beard rich orange. Sturdy 36-inch stalk.

$1.00

BLUSHING YOUTH

Deep "Petunia" pink self.

This is a rapid growing and free blooming iris; enduring substance and a finished bloom that will not be called a duplicate.

$1.00

BRIGHT MELODY

An attractive break in self color luscious ripe Concord grapes sheen and chestnut haft.

That desired closed shape at the apex and a complete well balanced bloom.

Enduring substance, unusual deep texture, stalk branching at center, the predominant color shading off to a rich brown with the beard.

$1.50

CAPTAIN ROYAL

Noble blue self.

These iris blooms shape are much of El Mohr bold rigid form. The blue is that delightful moon beam skies.

$2.00

DECORATOR

A unique red self done in "Pipe Stone" "Peace Pipe" tones. The wide branches claim one-half of the 40-inch stalk, suitable for adding height to spacious settings and the shadings are of the neutral harmony with other shades and blends.

$1.00

DREAMLAND

A red self, classified by "Dictionary colors" as Deep Hollyhock.

One and only uniform color and texture throughout the blooms.

Distinctive waving edge of the modified flar rounded Falls, bright prominent lemon color beard for charm, weather enduring quality, no staining nor fading during the life of blooms. Well branching stalk, 38 inches in height. The foliage is of sufficient height and desirable quality encircling the stalks for a picturesque setting.

$2.50

ELIGIBLE

The new diversion of red self.

These unusually shaped blooms are of the admired autumn glowing "Sumac Red," enriched texture overcast with soft walnut brown finish. Heavy beard of the texture shading, enduring quality substance. The evening effect at sunset produces quite a different inclusion coloring of intense blood red.

$4.00

ENJOY

Blend.

This "Brazil" red-wood iris has a sheen of a varnished texture. Branching 32" stalk.

$5.00

FASHION

Self

A gesture of light cream toga on a classic shaped bloom.

The Standard have a proud carriage of a style show. Falls are of some spread for attraction and enhanced with brilliant golden beard for trim.

$4.00

GRATITUDE

Self "Blue-bell" tone.

A flower of rare coloring and of large choice form, spaced on sturdy branching stems.

The broad standard are domed and of weather resistance.

Falls are slightly flaring with edge ruffling. The light brown markings greatly enhances the beauty and charm to this self toned iris.

$10.00

HALYCON DAYS

A signal red self.

This iris is near to the medium tone Iowa wild rose, on the large supporting 40-inch stalk. The shape of the blooms are interesting with an inflated appearance. Fragrant.

$1.00

IOWA GLORY

A rich maroon self with intense heavy texture, rich prominent orange beard; a good propagator.

$.50

NISHNABOTNA

A large reddish violet iris, one that has ventured the years and found reliable.

$.50

SIOUX CITY

An even self.

Imitation of the "Heliotrope" color in its varied shades when in the different light. A very broad bloom with cupped standards and flar falls. A striking different type of iris bloom. Very fragrant as cut flowers.

$.50

SIOUX CITY SUE

A striking bicolor.

The flower is wide and full petaled. The color is of deep rich tapestry with the intense blue blaze in the center of the falls. It is really an appropriate choice Iris to be named this famous distinction.

$1.50

STELLA VIOLA

A rich vivid violet self.

The beauty of this iris is a clear richer violet El Capitan, strong rigid 38-in. branching stalk with foliage in keeping to complete a choice iris.

$1.50

Remittance accompanying order is your part ours to assure the genuineness of stock.

W E L C O M E

to the A. I. S. annual event in our City May 28, 29, 30.

W. S. Snyder

3822 Fourth Avenue

Sioux City, Iowa

Joined A. I. S.—1927